There have been many attempts over the centuries to find this 'hidden library,' but all searchers have come up empty-handed. The library of the Moscow Tsars supposedly contained a vast collection of ancient manuscripts as well as texts written in a variety of other languages. It was not until Ivan IV, better known as Ivan the Terrible, who lived from 1530 to 1582, that he supposedly hid the library's texts. The library of the Grand Duchy of Moscow supposedly had built the library by 1518.
