S101. (c);

Sol. With an interview given by economic affairs secretary Shaktikanta Das it is clearly mentioned that government has to work under some fiscal constraints and it is making efforts to present a growth oriented budget. Fiscal constraints is a characteristic and not an objective and hence option 2 is wrong.

S102. (a)

Sol. In the 5th passage it is said by economist Madan Sabnav is the government has to increase its allocation for public investment on infrastructure to stimulate growth.

S103. (c)

Sol. The new budget is based on four pillars: poverty eradication, farmers' prosperity, job creation and a better quality of life for all Indian citizens. The new budget will ensure that India will continue towards stability even in disturbed and choppy situations.

S104. (c)

Sol. In the 2nd last passage it is mentioned that the government has been providing tax incentives to companies in the manufacturing sector, including tax deductions on emoluments paid to new employees, to encourage firms to step up hiring and create jobs under its Make in India initiative.

S105. (e)

Sol. The government has considered various suggestions which includes 1, 2, 3 and 4. The 5 option is not mentioned anywhere in the passage.

S106. (c); The answer is clearly given in the first paragraph of the passage where author says "The alarm bells should start ringing any time now. An important component of the economy has been sinking and needs to be rescued urgently. This critical piece is 'savings' and, within this overall head, household savings is the one critical subcomponent that needs close watching and nurturing." Thus, option (c) is the right answer.

S107. (b); The primary reasons behind the current economic slowdown is the tardy rate of capital expansion - or, investment in infrastructure as well as plant and machinery. Thus, statement (A) and (B) both are true.

S108. (c); It is clearly mentioned in the fourth paragraph of the passage that "Overall economic growth and household savings both are directly related." Thus, statement (A) is true and other statements are incorrect.

S109. (d); A penchant for the physical assets (such as a bullion or land) and the rise in the price levels of the gold are the main reasons of drop in savings in financial instruments after 2009. Thus, option (d) is correct.

S110. (e); The author says "...a recent study had attributed the decline in the household saving ratio in the UK during 1995-2007 to a host of factors such as declining real interest rates, looser credit conditions, increase in asset prices and greater macroeconomic stability..." Thus, option (e) is correct.

S111. (e);

Prodigy- a young person with exceptional qualities or abilities.

Epitome- a person or thing that is a perfect example of a particular quality or type. So, the right answer to this question is epitome, which is a synonym of prodigy. No other word can be a synonym or antonym of prodigy.

S112. (d)

Nondescript- lacking distinctive or interesting features or characteristics.

Writing a novel could be 'easier' or 'simpler'. 'Faster' describes a person or a thing in motion.

'Running' for an election is a phrase which mean to be a candidate. The others are irrelevant

S117. (b)

Speech that is hybrid (made up of several elements) by definitions combines these elements. The technical term hybrid best suits this context because it is neutral term devoid of negative connotations (which motley and mangled possess).

S118. (d)

S119. (a); 'accommodating...outburst against' is the correct use.

Accommodating- fitting in with someone's wishes or demands in a helpful way.

Outburst against- a sudden release of strong emotion.

S120.(d); Sophistry is deception through words and turn down is to reject.

Naivete - inexperienced

Deception - deceit through action

S121.Ans.(b)

Sol.

In the given case, the author gives a positive portrayal of the time traveler and the scene in concern. Options a and d are rejected as they introduce negative sentiments. Option (c) and (e) is rejected as no show is being put on in the given case. Option (b) is the best match, as it gets well the tone and narrative of the paragraph. Option (e) is irrelevant with respect to this context. Also, you should try to see how the tone of option (b) matched the rest of the paragraph and makes it the most appropriate one in the given context.

S122.Ans.(d)

Sol.

The given question is solved on the basis of sentiment and tone. The author, in the paragraph, describes what metaphysics is and goes on to explain how it is one of the oldest sciences. In this description of metaphysics, he adopts a positive tone and it can be seen that he appreciates the field. Options a, b and c commit the mistake of being too negative in their approach and rather belittle the field of metaphysics. This makes option d the clear answer, as it is the neutral/positive statement with respect to the field of metaphysics. Option e is irrelevant with respect to this context.

S123. Ans.(a) Passage is about nonresident Indian entity and its tax deduction. Other options are not in the context of passage as they talk about the things which are not given or can be inferred from the passage.

S124. Ans.(a) As the passage says that risk aggregation is new at the beginning of passage it can be inferred that most banks are yet to conceptualize it in their processes. Hence option (a) is correct. Option (c) is farfetched conclusion. Option (d) is repetition of what is being stated in passage earlier. So it can not be the answer

S125. Ans.(c) The passage talks of the consequences of inflation and what is impacted the most by its consequences is the poor, people without social security and pensioners. Hence, (c) is the right answer.

S126. (b)

S127. (b)

S128. (c)

S129. (e)

S130. (e)

S131.Ans.(c)

Sol.

Only option (c) is the one that does not fit into the theme of the paragraph as it is talking about the number of caveats this model is subjected to while the other sentences are not pointing to that but are actually trying to figure out the reason for the corridor and what corridor is about.

S132.Ans.(e)

Sol.

Option (e) is the one that does not fit into the theme of the paragraph as it is talking about the goals that are set by India while the other statements are indicating about the agreement of the Paris and the ramifications in the agreement.

S133.Ans.(e)

Sol.

Statement (a) mentions about the term corporate social responsibility which is slowly creeping and becoming a part of India's business era. The term pro bono means, 'for the public good', pro bono means a case is taken up for free or the rates are deeply discounted. Statements (c) and (d) mentions about the legal system and pro bono work .statement (e)is not about the legal system.

S134.Ans.(b)

S136. (d); Adverb modifies a verb/an adjective or an adverb. Place it before the verb i.e. 'already know', 'often invited', 'have just seen', 'determined never to yield this point – i.e. I will never compromise/surrender on this point, it is not 'never determined' –it will mean –adverb never is giving emphasis on the determination of the subject 'I' besides this is the particular point which is never to be yielded.

S137. (c); unreal past conditional with little or negligible probability. Punctuation usage –comma- to be placed before and after the adverb 'unfortunately' as the same has been used in the middle of the sentence. Had it been used in the beginning of the sentence, comma would have been required only after the said adverb.

S138. (c); The judges, talking at length among themselves, finally distributed the awards among the most active children. (Participial phrase – modifies judges)

S139. (c); "I have been ill for a fortnight and the Management as well as the school sports committee prefers to elect me Captain of school team. Initially I thought that it was only in fun but I was wrong."

S140. (d); Conditional Real past with low probability although something better can happen with the turn of events like paying more attention in the class. So, use simple past in 'if' clause followed by comma and base form of the verb with would/should/could/might.
