passage and many decades of respect for the craft. At a time when many people look for quick results, the craftsmen here are patient and precise. It is this precision and attention to detail that makes their work so valuable.

He welcomed his nephew to the heritage workshop, where his siblings finally found a place where they could learn from the original craftsmen. They carefully studied the old techniques and enriched it by adding their own ideas. The workshop is a place where tradition meets innovation, and it is this combination that has made it so successful.

The workshop seems to have a life of its own. It appears to be a place where time stands still, and the past is brought back to life.

Over decades and decades, the Daheir legacy has shown that true artistry starts with passion and is sustained by patience. Without relying on modern technology, the company stands as a living example of how dedication and skill can transform simple materials into timeless art, keeping alive a heritage where there seems no mistake in the harmony between tradition and excellence.

Q8. Which of the following best explains why visitors found the workshop's pages impressive?

- (a) The pages were produced using highly advanced machinery imported from overseas.
- (b) The books featured metallic covers that reflected modern design sensibilities.
- (c) The design was intricate and consistent, reflecting care and expert craftsmanship.

Solutions

S1. Ans. (b)

Sol. The sentence talks about a road safety campaign focusing on a particular group of people. The word targeted correctly expresses that the campaign was directed towards individuals of all age groups.

Option Analysis

(a) intended – planned or meant.

- Meaning (English): planned to do something.
- Meaning (Hindi): इरादा किया हुआ, योजना बनाई हुई.
- Example: She intended to finish the project by evening.
- Incorrect: Not correct here because the sentence needs a verb showing action of focusing on people, not just planning.

(b) targeted – aimed at a particular group or person.

- Meaning (English): aimed at a particular group or person.
- Meaning (Hindi): किसी विशेष समूह या व्यक्ति के लिए बनाया गया.
- Example: The government targeted the elderly for the health check-up.
- Correct: This is the correct option as it fits the context of the sentence.

(c) sustained – continued or supported.

- Meaning (English): continued or supported.
- Meaning (Hindi): जारी रखना, поддерживать.
- Example: The team sustained their lead throughout the match.
- Incorrect: This is incorrect because the sentence is about focusing on a group, not continuing an action.

(d) pretend – to claim or say something is true when it is not.

- Meaning (English): to claim or say something is true when it is not.
- Meaning (Hindi): झूठ बोलना, दावा करना.
- Example: He pretended to be happy when he was sad.
- Incorrect: This is incorrect because the sentence is about focusing on a group, not pretending.

(e) maintained – kept or continued.

- Meaning (English): kept or continued.
- Meaning (Hindi): बनाए रखना, जारी रखना.
- Example: The company maintained its reputation for quality.
- Incorrect: This is incorrect because the sentence is about focusing on a group, not maintaining something.

S2. Ans. (a)

Sol. The sentence is about the manner or way in which policy makers can work to make education more accessible. The question word How is used to ask about the manner or way.

Option Analysis

(a) How – in what way or manner.

- Meaning (English): in what way or manner.
- Meaning (Hindi): कैसे, किस प्रकार.
- Example: How can we reduce pollution in cities?
- Correct: because the sentence is about the way policy makers can strive.

(b) What – asking for information about something.

- Meaning (English): asking for a specific thing or information.
- Meaning (Hindi): क्या, कौन-सी वस्तु.
- Example: What is your favorite subject?
- Incorrect: Not suitable because the sentence is not asking which thing, but the method.

(c) Whom – object of a verb or preposition.

- Meaning (English): refers to the person who is the object of an action.
- Meaning (Hindi): किसे, किस व्यक्ति को.
- Example: Whom did you invite to the seminar?
- Incorrect: because it is not asking about a person who receives an action.

(d) When – at what time.

- Meaning (English): asks about the time something happens.
- Meaning (Hindi): कब, किस समय.
- Example: When will the results be announced?
- Not suitable as the sentence is about how to make education accessible, not time.

(e) Where – at what place or position.

- Meaning (English): asks about location.
- Meaning (Hindi): कहाँ, किस स्थान पर.
- Example: Where is the nearest railway station?
- Incorrect because it does not ask about location here.

S3. Ans. (a)

Sol. The subject "They" is plural, so the verb must also be plural. "Needs" is the singular form. The correct verb is "need".

Rule: Subject-verb agreement – a plural subject takes a plural verb without -s.

Correction: They need to submit the report before the deadline to avoid penalties.

S4. Ans. (c)

Sol. The phrase "is accustomed" is a passive construction.

Rule: The correct form of the verb "to be" in passive constructions is "is" in passive constructions and "are" in active constructions.

Correction: She is used to the new environment.

S5. Ans. (a)

Sol. The phrase "has been" is the present perfect form for the singular subject. "has been" is the correct form for the singular subject.

Rule: Present perfect form: has/have + past participle

Correction: She has been working on the project since the past.

S6. Ans. (d)

Sol. The phrase "An article is required" is a passive construction. "An article" is the subject. "is required" is the verb.

Rule: Use the correct form of the verb.

Correction: The article should be completed by the end of the week.

S7. Ans. (c)

Sol. In sentence, "neither...nor" is used. The verb should agree with the nearest subject. Here, "students" is plural and comes closest to the verb. The verb should be "were", not "was".

Rule: When using "neither...nor", the verb should agree with the subject closest to it.

Correction: Neither the teacher nor the students were present for the sudden schedule change.

S8. Ans. (c)

Sol. Correct Option: (c) The passage mentions that the family preserved traditional values while adding unique personal touches.

- (a) Incorrect: The passage mentions that the family preserved traditional values while adding unique personal touches. It does not mention that they remained loyal to traditional methods; no imported machinery is mentioned.
- (b) Incorrect: Though metal nameplates were later introduced, the visitors' admiration is described in the context of the delicate strokes of the pages, not modern metallic covers.
- (c) Correct: The passage notes that "every page that left his workshop carried such precision that visitors often felt... there seems no mistake in the delicate strokes of his work," which directly highlights the expert craftsmanship and meticulous design.
- (d) Incorrect: There is no mention of endorsements by famous artists.
- (e) Incorrect: The press is celebrated for its artisanal, not mass-produced, work; accuracy came from human skill, not batch production.

S9. Ans. (b)

Sol. Correct Option: (b) The family preserved traditional values while adding unique personal touches.

- (a) Incorrect: The passage does not mention financial decline or competitive pressure; the transition was a natural handing over of the legacy.

- (b) Correct: In 1999, Sayer's children and siblings "took possession of the company... determined to guard the original techniques their ancestor had loved," and they "even enriched it by offering metal nameplates to customise each piece," showing both preservation and gentle innovation.
- (c) Incorrect: There is no mention of a move to digital methods; they continued the old art of binding.
- (d) Incorrect: The business retained its original character; the tradition thrives generations later.
- (e) Incorrect: The passage specifies that Sayer's children and siblings took over; no outsiders were involved.

S10. Ans. (d)

Sol. (d) Both A and C

- (A) Correct: The passage clearly states, "Hadiya, Sayer's fourth-generation niece, now works beside her elders and adds her own quiet strength to the family's work," confirming that she is the latest generation contributing to the heritage.
- (B) Incorrect: There is no mention of the workshop being sold or rebranded; it remained in the family's possession.
- (C) Correct: The heirs "enriched it by offering metal nameplates to customise each piece, which gave every book an identity of its own," showing the purpose was to add uniqueness.

Thus, both A and C are correct.

S11. Ans. (a)

Sol.

- (A) Correct: The passage mentions that the workshop began in 1999, choosing to preserve traditional methods.
- (B) Incorrect: The passage does not mention any modern printing techniques.
- (C) Incorrect: The passage does not mention any government-sponsored art exhibitions.

Therefore, only (A) is correct.

S12. Ans. (b)

Sol. Correct Option: (b) The workshop seems to look like a traditional printing press.

- (a) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press remains a competitor.
- (b) Correct: The passage describes the workshop as a traditional printing press, holding onto old stories and techniques.
- (c) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press is a training school.
- (d) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press is a modern printing technology.
- (e) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press is a government-sponsored art exhibition.

S13. Ans. (b)

Sol. Correct Option: (b) The workshop seems to look like a traditional printing press.

- (a) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press is a competitor.
- (b) Correct: The passage describes the workshop as a traditional printing press, holding onto old stories and techniques.
- (c) Incorrect: The passage does not mention that the press is a training school.
- (d) Incorrect: There is no mention of government-sponsored art exhibitions.
- (e) Incorrect: The passage does not mention modern e-books being available.

S14. Ans. (d)

Sol. Correct Option: (d) took possession of

- (a) handed back – Incorrect: There is no mention of returning the company to someone else.
- (b) lost control of – Incorrect: The family gained control, not lost it.
- (c) in addition to – Incorrect: Grammatically and contextually unsuitable; it does not convey taking ownership.
- (d) took possession of – Correct: The passage explicitly states that in 1999 the children and siblings "took possession of the company," meaning they formally assumed ownership.
- (e) modernised the techniques – Incorrect: They preserved the traditional methods rather than modernising them.

S15. Ans. (a)

S25. Ans. (d)

Sol. Correct sequence: CBA: The noise of the morning alarm irritated her.

Why CBA works

- C ("noise") forms the subject head.
- B ("morning") appropriately modifies "alarm."
- A ("irritated") is the verb before the object "her."

S26. Ans. (b)

Sol. Correct sequence BAC: She was struck trying to climb and couldn't figure out the way.

Why BAC works

- B "struck" correctly follows "was" (passive: was struck).
- A "climb" fits after "trying to" (base form needed).

- C “figure” fits after “couldn’t” (bare infinitive).

S27. Ans. (c)

Sol. Correct sequence: CAB: The sudden rain cooled the scorching afternoon.

Why CAB works

- C “sudden” modifies “rain” to form the subject.
- A “cooled” is the verb.
- B “scorching” modifies “afternoon” as the object.

S28. Ans. (b)

Sol. The verb “ascend” means to go up, rise, or move to a higher position—either literally or figuratively.

- (A) is incorrect: “Ascend the conversation” is not a valid or idiomatic use of the word. The intended meaning seems to be “de-escalate” or “calm down,” which contradicts the meaning of “ascend.”
- (B) is correct: Profits “ascend” figuratively as they rise or increase.
- (C) is correct: Hikers literally ascend a mountain trail—this is a classic and accurate use of the word.
