1.Process of Online Application

It is expected that candidates should thoroughly acquaint themselves with the following instructions before applying for various posts:-

How to Apply

Detailed Guidelines/Procedures

A. Application Registration

B. Payment of Fee

C. Document Scan and Upload

Candidates can apply online only from 25.04.2026 to 15.05.2026 and no other mode of application will be accepted.

Important points to note before registration

Before applying online, candidates should have—

(i) Scan the following documents:

- Photo (4.5 cm × 3.5 cm)
- Signature (with black ink)
- Left-hand thumb impression (with black or blue ink on white paper)
- Handwritten declaration (with black ink on white paper) (text is given below)
- Ensuring that all these scanned documents conform to the required specifications provided in point C.

(ii) Signatures in CAPITAL LETTERS of English will not be accepted.

(iii) The thumb impression of the left hand should be clearly scanned and not blurred. (If a candidate does not have a left thumb, he/she can use the thumb of his/her right hand.)

(iv) The text of the handwritten declaration is as follows:

“I, _____ (Name of the candidate), hereby declare that all the information submitted by me in the application form is correct, true and valid. I will present the supporting documents as and when required.”

(v) The above handwritten declaration should be in the candidate's own handwriting and only in English. If it has been written and uploaded by another person or in any other language, the application will be considered invalid. (Visually impaired candidates who cannot write can get the text of the announcement typed and upload it as per the specified specifications by putting the thumb impression of the left hand below the typed declaration.)

(vi) Keep ready the required details/documents for online payment of the required application fee.

(vii) Have a valid personal email ID and mobile number, which should be kept active till the completion of the recruitment process. The service board can send the information to download the admit card for the examination on the registered email id. If a candidate does not have a valid personal email ID, he/she should create a new email ID and mobile number before applying online and keep it active.

Application Fee (Irrevocable)

Online Payment of Fee: From date 25.04.2026 to 15.05.2026

The bank transaction fee for payment of the online application fee will be borne by the candidate.

A. Application Registration

2. General Instructions Regarding the Examination

- (1) This examination will be conducted according to the online based system. The detailed procedure of the examination will be determined by the Service Board and will be displayed on the website of the Service Board in due course.
- (2) Based on the Preliminary Examination, candidates up to a maximum of 15 times the number of vacancies will be declared successful for admission to the Main Examination. Further, on the basis of the result of the Main Examination, candidates up to a maximum of 3 times the number of posts shall be called for interview (wherever required), and for the proficiency test (wherever required) candidates up to a maximum of 5 times shall be called.
- (3) The Service Board shall conduct the written examination on the same date in different shifts with different question papers in one shift or more than one shift or more than one date.
- (4) The level of the question paper shall be commensurate with the minimum educational qualification required for the post. The syllabus of the examination is enclosed in Appendix-2.
- (5) The determination of the number of questions, total marks and time duration for the Preliminary/Main Examination is as follows:

S.N.	Examination	Number of Questions	Total marks	Scheduled Time
1	Preliminary examination (if required)	100	100	01:30 Hours (90 minutes)
2	Main Examination	120	200	02 hours (120 minutes)

- (6) The Preliminary/Main examination will be conducted online in objective mode. It will be on a multiple-choice basis. There will be four options for the answer to each question, the candidate has to choose one of them correctly.
- (7) The system of minus marking on the wrong answers given by the candidate in the objective type of question papers of the Preliminary/Main Examination shall apply as follows:-
1. There will be four alternative answers for each question. For one wrong answer given by the candidate for each question, 1/4 (25 %) of the marks allotted for the question will be deducted as a Minus marking.
 2. If a candidate gives more than one answer, it will be considered as a wrong answer. Even if one of the given answers is correct, the same minus marking will be given for this question as above .
 3. If a candidate does not attempt any question, that is, the candidate does not provide an answer, then no minus marking shall be awarded for that question.
- (8) The Minimum Efficiency Standard for SC/ST candidates is set at 35%. That is, if the candidates of these categories score less than 35% marks in the Main examination, they will not be included in the merit/selection list. Similarly, the minimum efficiency standard for candidates of other categories is set at 40%. That is, if such candidates score less than 40% marks in the Main examination, they will not be included in the merit/selection list. All such candidates will be considered ineligible if they do not get the minimum efficiency standard marks set by the Service Board.

(9) The date and time of the examination will be displayed on the website of the Service Board from time to time.

(10) If a candidate faces any difficulty in the online application, he/she may obtain a solution to his/her difficulty/problem by contacting the Service Board's "Help Desk" at the number 0522-7118317 (on any working day from 9:30 AM to 6:00 PM) or through the Service Board's email ID- helpdesk@upcib.org

(11) The question paper will be in both Hindi and English languages, except for questions of General Hindi and General English Topics. In case of any doubt, the question marked in English language will be valid.

(12) Admit Card Download: — Candidates will have to visit the website of the Service Board <https://www.upcib.upsdc.gov.in> to download the Admit Card for the online examination. identity card with photograph. These will have to be submitted to the Inspector (Invigilator) for verification.

The identity of the candidate will be verified on the basis of the details mentioned in the Admit Card, attendance list and required documents submitted. If the identity of the candidate is found to be suspicious, he/she may not be allowed to appear in the examination.

➤ Ration Card and learner's Driving Licence are not valid identity proof.

Note: The candidates will have to produce the original of Photo Identity Proof along with the Examination Admit Card and Interview Admit Card respectively and a photocopy of Photo Identity Proof at the time of appearing in the Examination/Interview, otherwise they will not be allowed to appear in the Examination/Interview. Candidates should ensure that the name inscribed on the Admit Card (which is provided during the registration process) should match perfectly with the name mentioned on the photo identity proof. Female candidates who have changed their first/last/middle name after marriage should pay special attention in this regard. If any discrepancy is found between the name indicated in the Admit Card and the name mentioned in the photo identity proof, the candidate will not be allowed to appear in the examination. Candidates who have changed their names will be allowed only if they have completed the original Gazette Notification / Your original marriage certificate / The original affidavit will be submitted.

(14) Candidates Reporting Late i.e. candidates arriving after the reporting time specified on the Admit Card for the examination will not be allowed to take the examination. The reporting time mentioned on the Admit Card is prior to the time of commencement of the examination.

Though the duration of the exam is 2 hours, candidates may have to be present at the venue for about 4 hours including the time taken to complete various formalities like verification, compilation of various required documents, login, giving instructions, etc.

(15) Provisions relating to examination centres :

- (i) The exam will be conducted online at the venues mentioned in the respective Admit Cards.
- (ii) No request for change in centre / venue / date / session for the examination will be entertained.
- (iii) The Service Board, on the basis of financial / administrative feasibility and contingencies etc., at its discretion, has the right to cancel any examination centre and / or add / remove some other centres
- (iv) The Service Board also has the right to allot a centre to the candidate other than the one chosen by him.
- (v) The candidate shall/will be present at the examination centre at his/her own risk.

Expenditure in the examination and the service board will not be liable for any injury or loss etc.

(vi) The selection of the centre once done by the candidate will be final.

If an adequate number of candidates do not choose a particular centre for the 'online' examination, the Service Board reserves the right to allot those candidates to some other nearby centre; or if the number of candidates at any centre exceeds the available capacity for the online examination, the Service Board reserves the right to allot the candidate to another centre.

(16) Guidelines for persons with disabilities using scribe for writing:—

(i) Visually impaired candidates and candidates whose writing speed is permanently adversely affected for any reason, subject to the limitations specified in (ii) and (iii) below, You can keep your scribe at your own expense during the online exam. In all cases where scribes are used, the following rules will apply:

- The candidate will have to arrange his / her scribe at his own expense.
- The scribe arranged by the candidate should not be a candidate of the same examination. If violation of the above is found at any stage of the process, the candidature of both the candidate and the scribe will be cancelled. Candidates who want to use the services of Scribe must mention it carefully in the online application form. Any subsequent request cannot be accepted.
- A person acting as a scribe for one candidate cannot become a scribe for another candidate.
- Scribe can be from any academic stream. However, the scribe for the posts of Specialist Officer should be of a different stream than the academic stream prescribed for that post.
- Both the candidate and the scribe will have to furnish a suitable declaration confirming that the scribe fulfills all the eligibility criteria mentioned above. If later it is found that he/she did not meet any of the prescribed eligibility criteria or concealed important facts, the candidate's candidature will be cancelled irrespective of the outcome of the online examination.
- Candidates who will use the scribe will be provided with a compensatory time of 20 minutes for each hour of the examination or otherwise, as otherwise directed.

- The scribe will not answer on its own. If any such behaviour is found, the candidature will be cancelled.
- Only those candidates who have registered for compensatory time will be given such concessions. Since the compensatory time will be system based, it will not be possible to provide such time by the agency conducting the examination if the candidate has not registered for the same. Candidates who have not registered for compensatory time will not be granted such concessions.
- At any stage during the examination, if it is found that the scribe is answering the questions independently, the examination session will be terminated and the candidate's candidature will be cancelled. If after the examination it is reported by the examination admin personnel that the scribe independently answered the questions, the candidature of such candidates who had used the services of scribe will also be cancelled.

(ii) Guidelines for candidates with mobility disability and cerebral palsy

Candidates whose major (writing) limb ability is affected to such an extent that the pace of performance has slowed down (minimum 40% disability) will be provided with compensatory time of twenty minutes per hour or otherwise, as directed.

(iii) Guidelines for visually impaired candidates

- Visually impaired candidates (who have at least 40% disability) may choose to view the content of the examination in larger font and all such candidates will be eligible for compensatory time of 20 minutes for each hour of the examination or as otherwise directed.
- Visually impaired candidates will be provided the facility to view the examination material in large font.

These guidelines may be issued by the Government of India (GOI) from time to time. Government of India Office Memo No. 16-110/16 issued by the Government of Uttar Pradesh. 2003 - III, dated 26.02.2013 in order of Government of Uttar Pradesh Government No. 7/2019/3/4/86-KA-2/2019 is subject to change as per the guidelines/clarifications dated 04.12.2019 (as amended).

(17) Other provisions :-

- (i) The possibility of any problem in the conduct of the examination cannot be completely ruled out, which may affect the conduct of the examination and/or the preparation of the result. In such a situation, every effort will be made to resolve the problem, which may include transfer of candidates, delay in examination, etc. The conduct of the re-examination will be subject to the absolute discretion of the institution conducting the examination. Candidates will not have the right to make any claim for the re-examination. Candidates who are not ready to be transferred or are not willing to participate in the delayed process of conducting the examination will be immediately dismissed from the process.

(ii) The decision of the Service Board in all matters related to recruitment will be final and binding on the candidate. No correspondence or personal enquiry will be accepted by the Service Board in this regard.

(iii) If the exam is conducted in more than one session, the marks of different sessions will be equated to accommodate the slight difference in the difficulty level of the different question paper series used in different sessions. More than one session is required when the capacity of the nodes is low or there is a technical disruption occurs at a centre or for a candidate.

(iv) The Service Board will analyse the answers of individual candidates along with the answers of other candidates to find out the pattern of similarity between correct and incorrect answers. If the analytical process adopted by the Service Board in this regard finds that the answers have been shared and the marks obtained are not genuine/valid, the Service Board reserves the right to cancel the candidature of the concerned candidates and the result of such candidates (disqualified) will be withheld.

(v) If any candidate is found to be furnishing wrong information and/or violating the procedure at any stage of the selection process, he/she will be disqualified from the selection process and will not be allowed to participate in the recruitment process of any Service Board in future. If such cases are not detected during the current selection process but are detected later, such disqualification shall apply retrospectively.

(vi) Procedure for Determination of Marks:—

The marks of the online exam are obtained by following the following procedure:

(a) In each objective test, the number of questions answered correctly by the candidate is considered to get a corrected score after applying penalty on wrong answers.

(b) The revised marks so obtained are equated to adjust for the slightest difference, if any, in the difficulty level of each objective test conducted in different sessions.

* The marks obtained by the candidates in any examination are equated with the base form taking into account the distribution of marks of all the question papers.

(c) The marks and total marks of each examination are displayed with decimal points up to two decimal points.

Note: The cut-off is implemented in two stages:-

- i. On the scores of each individual test
- ii. On Total Marks

(vii) As per policy, the examination/question papers are made available to the candidates only during the examination. Even after the examination, the question papers are not shared with anyone.

Please note that a candidate is allowed to appear only once in the online examination for a post. If you appear in the online examination more than once, the candidature will be canceled. In case more than one Admit Card has been issued, candidates are advised to appear in the examination only once and for one post on the date and time mentioned in the respective Admit Card.

(18) Separate applications will be accepted for the advertised post/group.

(19) Every application shall compulsorily fill up the post/institution based order of preference which cannot be changed under any circumstances.

(20) Candidates who are serving in the Central or State Government must obtain a No Objection Certificate from their Service Employer to participate in the selection process of the posts in question, which will have to be submitted in such manner as may be specified by the Service Board.

Note: Reservation-wise full details of vacancies (vertical and horizontal) are given in Appendix-4.

It is hereby indicated that, in accordance with the policy/instructions prescribed in the latest Acts/Ordinances/Rules/Government Orders of the Government of Uttar Pradesh relating to vertical and horizontal reservation, the number of unreserved/reserved vacancies may be revised/changed, and the total number of advertised vacancies as well as the category-wise numbers may decrease/increase.

8. Reservation: Reservation will be given to candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes/Other Backward Classes of U.P./Economically Weaker Sections of U.P. as per the existing Government Rules. Similarly, the categories falling under horizontal reservation such as Dependents of Freedom Fighters of Uttar Pradesh/Women candidates/Ex-servicemen of U.P./ Divyang candidates of U.P. society, Outstanding Sports Persons of U.P. will also be allowed reservation on vacancies as per the existing government rules. Reservation will be allowed for the Divyang candidates of the society of Uttar Pradesh on the vacancies created in the posts notified (identified) by the government.

Note: (1.1) Office Memorandum No. 5/2022/18-1/2008/47/2022/18-1/2008/47/2022 issued regarding selection to the posts notified (identified) by the Karmik Anubhagh-2 of Uttar Pradesh Government for the Divyang candidates of the society of U.P. In point – 5 (Appointment on Unreserved Vacancies) dated April 18, 2022, the provision has been made as follows- A person with a disability cannot be denied to compete for appointment on an unreserved vacancy in the posts identified suitable for persons with disabilities, i.e., a person suffering from disability can be appointed on an unreserved vacancy. Provided that the post is earmarked for persons suffering from the relevant category of disabilities.

(1.2) The certificate of their category will be valid only for the year preceding the year of application by the candidates belonging to the EWS category as per the Office Memorandum No. 1/2019/4/1/2002/Ka-2/19 TC-II, dated 18.02.2019 of the Karmik Anubhagh-2 of Uttar Pradesh Government.

(1.3) Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Other Backward Classes, Economically Weaker Sections, Dependents of Freedom Fighters, Divyangjan, Outstanding Sports Persons, and Ex-servicemen candidates who are not natives of the State of Uttar Pradesh, such candidates will be considered as Unreserved category, they are not allowed the benefit of reservation/age relaxation.

(1.4) Candidates falling in any reserved category of Uttar Pradesh, if they want the benefit of reservation, must mark their category/sub-category (one or more, as the case may be) in the relevant column of the application form as all the personal information will be displayed in the application form.

(2) Candidates seeking the benefit of reservation/age relaxation should obtain the certificate issued by the competent authority in the prescribed format available at Appendix-1 of this detailed advertisement in support of the respective reserved category and as and when required, they should submit the same to the Service Board.

(3) Candidates claiming relaxation in more than one reserved category/age limit will be given only one relaxation, which will be more beneficial.

(4) In the case of Women candidates, only the caste certificate issued by the father's side shall be valid.

(5) It is mandatory for the candidate to attach self-attested copies of all the desired certificates in support of the category/sub-category claimed by him in his application for eligibility and reservation in the Preliminary examination, otherwise his claim will not be accepted.

9. Emergency Commission Obtained/Received Eligibility Conditions of Short Term Commissioned Officers (for age relaxation only):-

Emergency Commissioned / Short Duration Commissioned Officers who have not been discharged from the Army but whose military service has been extended for rehabilitation can also apply for this examination in terms of Government Order No. 22/10/1976-Personnel-2-85 dated 30th January, 1985 subject to the following conditions:-

- (a) Such applicants will have to produce a certificate issued by the competent authority of the Army/Navy/Air Force to the effect that their service has been extended for rehabilitation and no disciplinary proceedings are pending against them.
- (b) Such applicants shall furnish a written undertaking in due course that they shall be immediately discharged from military service if selected for the post. This facility will not be allowed to an Emergency/Short-Term Commissioned Officer, if
 - (i) He has received a permanent commission in the Army.
 - (ii) He has been discharged from the Army by resignation; and
 - (iii) He has been discharged from the Army on account of misconduct or physical incapacity or on the basis of his own application and who has been paid gratuity.
